

FLRA EXECUTIVE ORDER 13522 TRAINING

This FLRA Executive Order 13522 course is intended to help Federal employees, managers and their Union representatives to fully utilize the opportunities presented by the Executive Order. The training motivates and encourages participation in Labor-Management Forums, describes pre-decisional involvement and explains tracking and reporting metrics as outlined by National Counsel on Labor Management Relations.

The complete course package is available for download at:

http://hru.gov/courses/download/FLRA_EO_13522_Training_LMS_v4.zip

You can view the Executive Order 13522 Course at the HR University LMS at:

http://hru.gov/course_catalog.aspx

To best reach all federal employees, we have made the source code available for download to host on your agencies' LMS.

The FLRA EO 13522 course is:

- 2.1 SCORM conformant
- Tested with ADL SCORM test suite
- Fully 508 compliant
- Downloadable
- Ready to be adapted to your LMS

Developing and distributing this Executive Order training to all federal employees has been a collaborative interagency effort. The Veterans Administration provided all technical support and production facilities and the Office of Personnel Management provided a permanent home on their LMS.

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) Office of General Counsel is solely responsible for the substantive content and gratefully acknowledges the VA and OPM for their support of this project.

Department of Veterans Affairs

Over the next year, this interagency effort will produce the following web-based trainings:

- FLRA 7106(b)(1) pilot training
- OGC Basic Statutory Training
- Authority Arbitration Training
- OGC Representation Training
- FSIP Training